

Nomination Guidelines for the Second Kanazawa University International Award
in Commemoration of Daisetz T. Suzuki and Kitaro Nishida

Daisetz T. Suzuki and Kitaro Nishida, both graduates of Kanazawa University (formerly known as the Fourth High School), left behind world-class achievements in the realm of philosophy, thought and religion. In tribute to these two great scholars, the Kanazawa University International Award (the “KUI Award”) has been founded to honor scholars or researchers making internationally outstanding achievements in the realm of philosophy, thought and religion. The “KUI Award” aims to facilitate international cooperation and the further advancement of academic research in the world through Kanazawa University as a global academic and research institution. The Kanazawa University International Award Committee (the “KUI Award Committee” or “Committee”) is therefore seeking nominees for the Second KUI Award as follows.

1. Academic areas: Philosophy, thought and religion
2. Content of the award: Award certificate and award plaque, accompanied by a cash prize of five million yen
3. Number of winners: One individual winner
4. Eligible nominees: Scholars or researchers who have made internationally distinguished achievements in the realm of philosophy, thought and religion
5. Nomination period: Thursday, November 1, 2018 to Wednesday, May 15, 2019
6. Schedule for selection of award winner and the award ceremony
  - (1) Selection of award winner: Mid- September 2019
  - (2) Award ceremony: Friday, December 13, 2019[Note to Award winner] Please attend the award ceremony and deliver a memorial lecture.
7. Nomination requirements (by recommendation only)
  - (1) Requisite documents: Letter of nomination [include reasons record] (in the prescribed form), personal resume, list of achievements
  - (2) Place of submission: KUI Award executive office (by post or e-mail)

8. Selection process

- (1) Reporting to the KUI Award Committee, a KUI Award selection panel (the "Panel") will be set up. Final candidates for the KUI Award will be shortlisted through deliberation of nominees by Panel members.
- (2) Based on the selection and shortlisting result presented by the Panel, the KUI Award Committee will decide the award winner.

9. Members of the KUI Award Committee

Koetsu Yamazaki, President, Kanazawa University

Mitsuru Usui, Director, Juzen Memorial Hospital (Medical Corporation Meitokukai)

Masayoshi Shibata, Vice President/Trustee, Kanazawa University

Masahide Mori, Professor, Faculty of Human Sciences, Institute of Human and Social Sciences, Kanazawa University; Advisor to the President, Kanazawa University

Tamotsu Yamade, Chairman, Kanazawa University Alumni Association; Chairman, Ishikawa Federation of Small Business Associations

Hiroshi Yamamoto, Advisor, Kanazawa University; the first president of Komatsu University to be established in 2018.

Masahiro Arimatsu, Vice President/Trustee/Secretary General, Kanazawa University

10. Submission of documents, inquiries

KUI Award Executive Office (Kanazawa University General Affairs Department)

Address: Kakuma-machi, Kanazawa, Ishikawa 920-1192, Japan

E-mail: award@adm.kanazawa-u.ac.jp

Telephone: 076-264-5010

Facsimile: 076-234-4010

Form

MMMM DD, YYYY

To: Chairperson of KUI Award Committee

_____ (seal)

_____

Nomination of Candidate for the First Kanazawa University International Award

I would like to recommend the following individual as the one worthy of the Kanazawa University International Award. Details are provided in the other requisite documents (no particular format) enclosed.

Name:

Gender:

Date of birth:

Nationality:

Organization:

Title or position:

Note: Please attach English translation, when you submit requisite documents (Letter of nomination, reasons record, personal resume, list of achievements).